Bank of Italy Officials Meet At Big Dinner

More Than 800 Gather at Meeting in Los Angeles

As the first step in the new plan of organization and administration announced a few weeks ago by James A. Bacigalupi, president of the Bank of Italy National Trust and Savings Association, whereby Los Angeles was created a regional division of the banking operations of this institution, with its own autonomy and jurisdiction of authority, a dinner was given Saturday evening at the Los Angeles Biltmore, at which approximately 800 of the officials of the bank met for fellowship and discussion of banking problems.

The recent reorganization of this Los Angeles division includes a general regional board of 82 members, comparable to a banking board of directors, who will have supervision of the bank's affairs in Southern California. The territory supervised from Los Angeles includes Kern and Santa Barbara Counties and everything south to the state line.

Each branch office of the bank is perfecting its organization of an advisory board composed of local and influential citizens. In the Southern California jurisdiction there are 119 branch managers, 500 advisory board members, and 82 regional board members as above outlined, and all were gathered together at this dinner, which was a very formal and programmed affair.

In addition to the dinner, musical and entertainment features, they were present 17 of the officials of the bank, as visitors and guests, from the San Francisco division of the organization. These included the following: A. P. Giannini, chairman of the bank and present chairman of the advisory committee; James A. Bacigalupi, president; B. Scatena, chairman board of directors; L. M. Giannini, vice-chairman board of directors; and Vice-Presidents A. J. Mount, A. Pedrini, W. W. Douglas, W. E. Blauer, Leo V. Belden, A. J. Gock, George A. Webster, A. E. Scarborough, Edy. S. Aldwell, R. B. Durmister, Louis Ferrari, A. W. Hendrick, J. M. Grant, and P. C. Hale.

TREE RIDDLE SOLVED

The city trustees Tuesday night faced a riddle in the matter of removing trees on Plaza del Amo west of Arlington avenue. One group had petitioned that the trees be cut down. Tuesday a petition with 15 signatures of persons living on the street asked that the trees be saved. The trustees ordered the trees topped and trimmed.

More Than 3000 Kiwanians Will Attend Confab

National Convention Will Be Held in Memphis in June

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Two delegates from each of the 1845 Kiwanis Clubs in the United States and Canada, together with 2000 visitors, will bring over 5000 guests to this city for the eleventh annual convention of Kiwanis International, June 6-9.

Registration of delegates and the visitors and the assignment of hotel accommodations are already under way at the convention office here. The excellent facilities for the thousands of guests.

The Memphis Auditorium, which has been the meeting place of the south's largest conventions, will be used for the Kiwanis sessions. The "All Kiwanis Night" on Monday evening, June 6, from Memphis will be an international event. All clubs on the North American continent will meet in their respective cities at the same time as the opening session of the convention in Memphis. This simultaneous occasion will be for the expression of the united good will and friendship existing between the United States and Canada for over 100 years.

Public Invited To Inspect New Post Ave. Homes

Donald L. Crabbe, owner of five choice lots on Post avenue for the past four years, has erected two attractive bungalows on two of the lots and is inviting the public to an inspection of them on Sunday, April 10, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m., and daily after 2 p. m., beginning Friday.

These model California homes have five rooms each, and are usually complete. They embody many new ideas in home refinements, such as automatic inside locking bathroom doors, wrought iron curtain rods, and combination refrigerators and coolers.

Mr. Crabbe is offering these new bungalows for sale with a small cash payment. He contemplates the erection of additional homes on his other lots on Post avenue which he has owned for over four years. He is convinced there is an urgent need of new homes in Torrance and is inviting the public to come Sunday or any afternoon and inspect these two model homes at 1612 and 1616 Post avenue.

College Students Will Present Costume Play at the Methodist Church Here Palm Sunday Night

The evening service at the Methodist Episcopal Church on Palm Sunday will be of an unusually interesting character.

A group of talented college undergraduates from the University of Southern California will present the beautiful and impressive costume play entitled "Simon the Cyrenian" at 7:30.

The main characters in the play are: Thomas, a disciple, Adelbert Bowler; James, a disciple, Paul Cunningham; The Lad of the Loaves and Fishes, Lawrence Hawkins; Drusilla, the wife of Simon; Harriet Fuller; Simon; Walter Braun. All members have special qualifications for the parts they play.

The musical numbers will be rendered by the Mesdames Parsons, Leitzel and Williams, who compose the University Trio. Among the selections will be sung "Love's Offering" (Edwin Parker), "Blow Golden Trumpets" (Carrie Adams), and "Into the Woods My Master Went" (Sydney Lanier).

The group has been directed under the careful supervision of the professor of dramatics at Southern California University, and the whole program has been arranged by the Los Angeles Y. W. C. A. secretary.

Rev. A. Lyall, who is in close touch with both faculty and student body at the University, hopes that the people of Torrance will respond to this program by their presence, as it may lead to further excellent evenings in the future. Special stage decorations are being placed, new and effective footlights are being installed to give the necessary effects, and Oriental costumes are being worn.

OBSERVATIONS

It will continue to improve. This means more employment, more wholesale and retail business.

MANY local residents who drive a hundred miles in search of California's spring loveliness have not toured the Palos Verdes Hills since the annual awakening.

Probably there is not a more beautiful drive in the whole country than that which is almost at our door. The wild flowers are growing riotously over the slopes, hilltops and valleys. The fragrant aroma of the blossoms is delicate on the air. The birds are singing. The project's landscaped areas have never been so lovely. The region of the main entrance is inimitable in its beauty. Near the golf clubhouse, and along the northern streets of the project, one finds the roadways lovely with spring's brightest blooms.

The Palos Verdes Estates today are worth driving hundreds of miles to see.

Girl Scouts Enjoy Hike to Redondo

The Girl Scouts of Torrance, accompanied by Scout Leader Miss Volney Henderson, packed a lunch and hiked to Redondo Beach and back Saturday.

Scouts who report a most delightful day are Mary Elizabeth Peckham, Rachel Huddleston, La Gretta Hall, Marguerite Lincoln, Marian Mischeau, Olga Johnson, Maisie Smith, Inez Smith, Pearl Gilbert, Lucy Rae Perry, Maxine Gascoigne, Mildred Stanberry, Irene Newby, Pauline Rose Eby, Pauline Young, Norma McCormick, Vivian Young, Viola Dawson, and Ajaine Brown.
